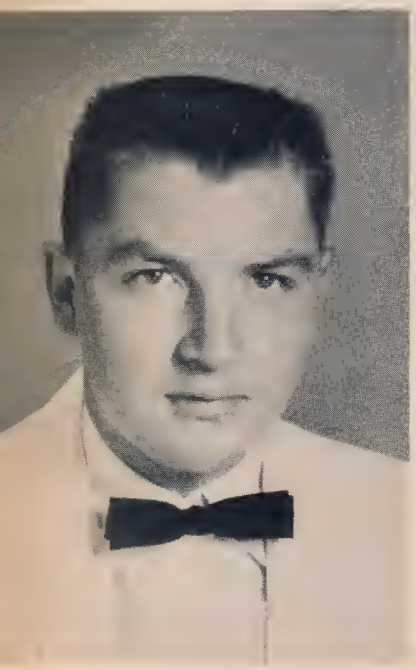
SENIORS

HILDA KNOWLES
As many good points as a pack of pins.

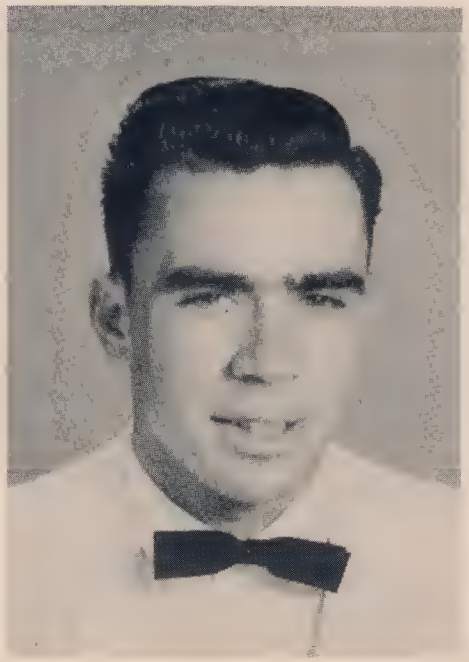
CATHERINE LANGSTON
Chatter, chatter all through the day- 'tis no wonder her hair is gray.

BARBARA ANN LEE
There are two sides to every thing, my side and my side.



CHARLES HOMER LEE
Girls are running through his mind; they don't dare walk.

JERRY LEE
He could wink at the moon and it would slide down out of the sky and roll 'long beside him.



JO ANN LEE
I love to wind my tongue up, and I love to let it go.

SENIORS

KIRK LEE
Don't tell me what I mean, let me figure it out myself.

PATRICK LEE
You can't kiss a girl unexpectedly, only sooner than she thought you would.

RAEFORD LEE
Let us enjoy the present, we'll have enough trouble in the hereafter.

ROBERT LEE
A good listener is usually thinking about something else.

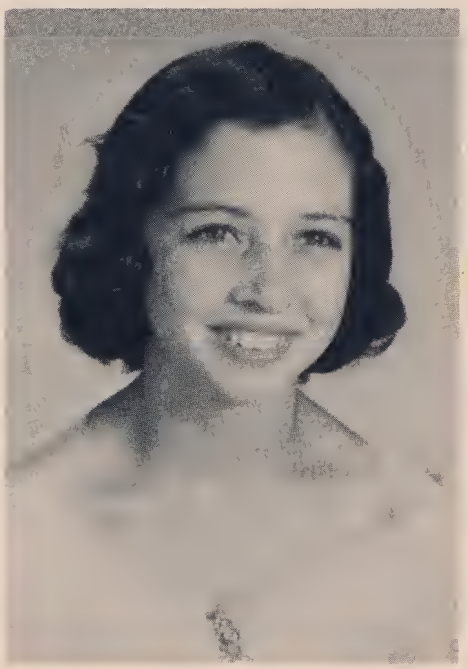
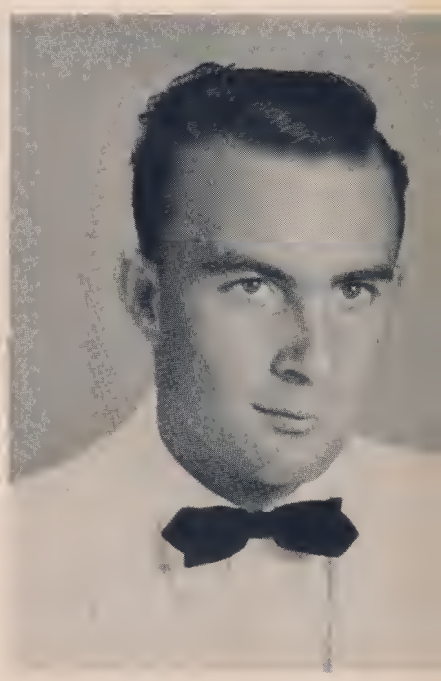
GOLDA MASSENGILL
Carefree, gay, and full of fun.





JAMES MASSENGILL
There ought to be another Delilah to shear this Sampson of his intellectual locks.

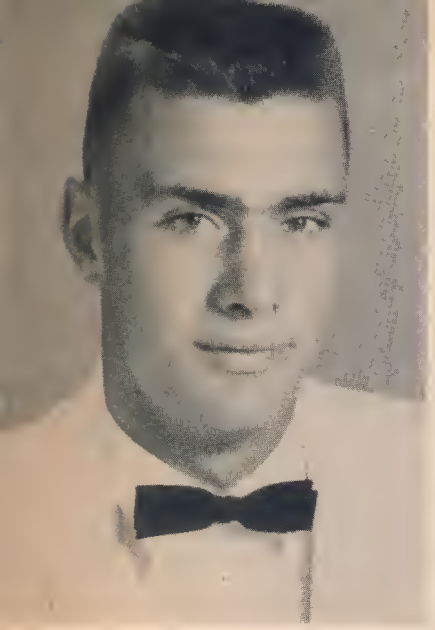
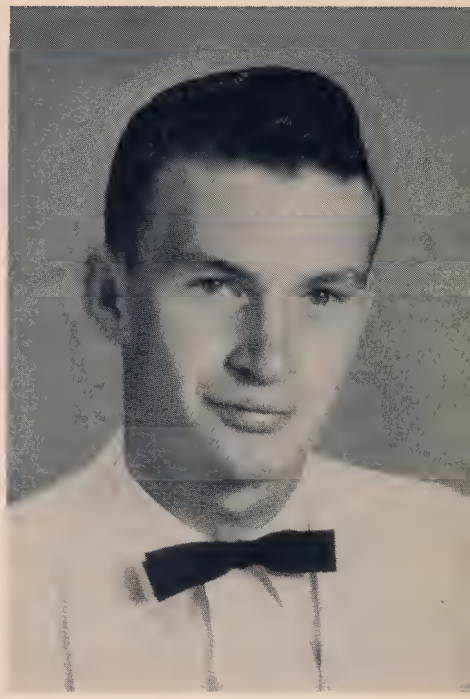
SENIORS



J.D. ADAMS
All the world loves a lover, except when he's driving in heavy traffic.

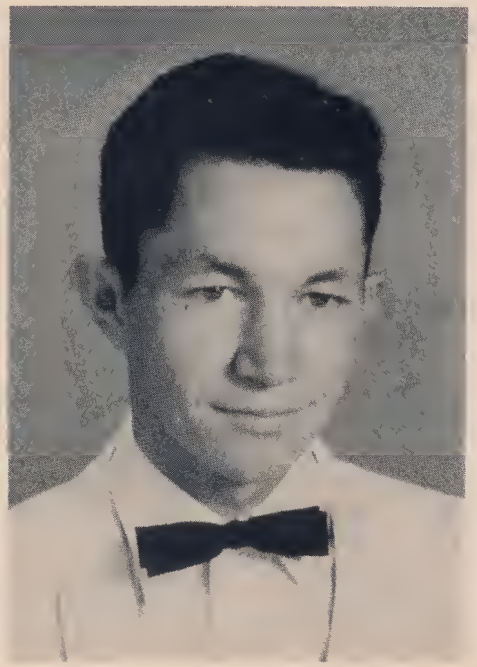
BRENDA BAREFOOT
Impossible is a word I never use.

JOSEPH BAREFOOT
Beware, I may do something sensational yet!



SHELBY JEAN BAREFOOT
Little she says, but much she does.

DONALD BEASLEY
To think is an idle waste of time.

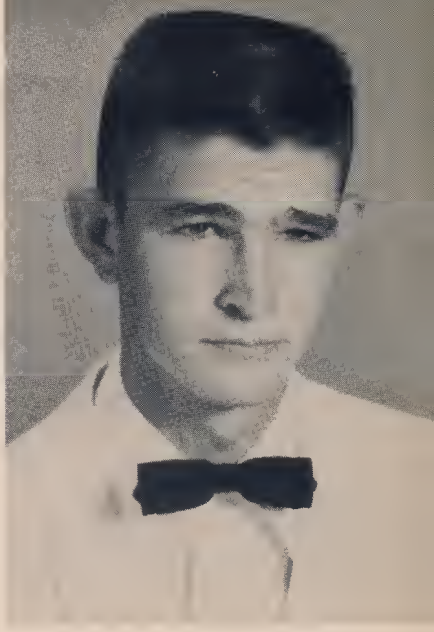


MARY LEE BAREFOOT
If it's fun, let's do it.

SENIORS

PATRICIA BEASLEY
Rest first, then work.

SHIRLEY BEASLEY
If men interfere with your work;
quit work.



EARL BLACKMAN
Beware of a quiet man.

SUE BROCK
Don't plaque me with studies;
I have weighter things on my mind.

DAVID BLACKMAN Life is one long process of getting tired.

SHERRILL DENNING
A combination of wise and otherwise.

SENIORS

REBECCA DUDLEY
You can't take it with you, but who wants to?

BETSY FIELDS
She puts her worries in a pocket with a hole in it.

JAMES ALLEN HARRIS
I like a girl with a good head on my shoulders.

ROZELLE HILL
I have fun wherever I go.

CLARA HUDSON
She's at the awkward age, too old for teddy bears and too young for wolves.

MARY LOUISE HUDSON
Work is done and must be done, but while I work I'll have my fun.

THE Tuscarora 1957

SENIORS

MORTISON HUDSON
All I want in life is a little wife and a big plantation.

THOMAS HUDSON
If you don't think women are explosure, try dropping one.

VICTOR HUDSON
I ain't lazy-I just haven't found a suitable occupation yet.

REBECCA JOHNSON
Life is not finished: it just began.

BETTY JACKSON
There never was an unhappy redhead and she wouldn't change convention.

HELEN JONES
O.K., teacher,
you can talk now-I've finished.

SENIORS

ETTIE MAE McLAMB
Sweet and shy.

GERALDINE McLAMB
If I can't say what I think, why think it?

HILDA McLAMB
I do the things I like to do-that's why I talk.

JIMMY McLAMB
I will not believe it until I have read it.

LILLIE MORGAN
It doesn't pay to take life so seriously.

WILLADEAN NORRIS
To hear her talk and see her smile, her list of friends will run a mile.

SENIORS

BOBBY PARKER
I don't know where I'm going, but I'm on my way

DONALD PARKER Speak of Jacob's ladder and he would ask how many steps there were.

DORIS PARKER
Happy, contented, she jogs along.

LUNETTE PARKER
I do the hardest work of my day before breakfast, getting up.

JERRY PEACOCK
I'm not a surgeon, but I do a lot of cutting up.

RUSSELL PEACOCK
If he wasn't first,
he was in the first line.

SENIORS

CHARLES RAYNOR
The Presidential seat needs men like Washington, Lincoln, and me.

J.M. ROYALS
Don't let his silence fool you;
he has his share of fun.

J.T. RYALS
One boy is more trouble than a dozen girls.

DORIS TEW Proof that there's never been a redheaded saint.

DORAS THORNTON
The way to a man's heart is through his stomach,
so I've taken cooking lessons.

LOIS THORNTON
Her talk is like a stream which runs with rapid change from rocks to roses.

SENIORS

BETTY JO WESTBROOK
Although I wink, I am not blind.

DORA ELLEN WESTBROOK
It's not what you do, it's what you get caught doing.

LARRY WILLIAMS
Like a canoe; more easily controlled if paddled from behind.

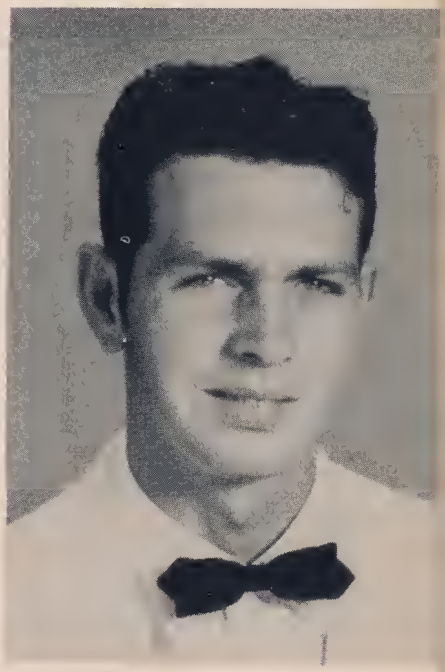
HILDA WOOD
She enters the room voice first.



J.F. YOUNG
He packs his troubles in a box, sits on the lid and smiles.

As the 1956-57 basketball season opened it found the Meadow Indians with much spirit and determination. Through the entire season the same fine spirit and good sportsmanship increased. Their season's record of 10 wins and 14 defeats shows that much time and effort was spent by the team and all concerned to have overcome the handicap of having lost 5 regulars from the previous season. With this same fine spirit continued, the Meadow Indians can always expect a successful season in basketball.

MEMORIES

The Seniors of 1957 are now leaving Meadow High. We shall always remember these last years together.

On April 26, 1956 the juniors made their first appearance in "Passing Fancy", a play centered around the MacAvery family. Thinking back we see Mickey (Hilda McLamb) as a tom-boy who, when she saw Mr. Welsoner (Russell Peacock) tried to become a lady.

Mary (Rebecca Johnson) was eighteen years old. She tried to fall in love with every new hero that came along. Jim Belfour (J. D. Adams) was her steady until Mr. Welsoner came along.

Mr. and Mrs. MacAvery (Brenda Barefoot and James Allen Harris) had a very difficult job trying to keep up with their children.

Miss Friele (Mary Louise Hudson) the school teacher, was the one Mrs. MacAvery called on to get Mary a date for the Senior prom. It just so happened that Mary sprained her ankle and had to call on Dr. Challis (Thomas Hudson).

Without Molly (Margarette Tart), the maid who always said the wrong thing at the wrong time, the play could not have been a success.

On December 22, 1955 the juniors entertained the Seniors of 1956 with the annual Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom with Christmas as the theme.

A luscious meal of turkey with all the trimmings, butterbeans, pineapple salad, rolls, iced tea, coffee, and fruit cake was served. Lunette Parker acted as Mistress of Ceremony with toasts given by Mary Louise Hudson, Donald Beasley, Patrick Lee, Larry Williams, and Thomas Barefoot. Mr. Harriett gave the farewell speech.

The Jimmy Harris Band from A.C. College furnished the music for the dance in the gym which also was decorated in the Christmas theme.

On March 7, 1957 the seniors made their final appearance in a play in "Bolts and Nuts". It does sound nutty doesn't it?

The cast was as follows: Rebecca Bolt--Mary Louise Hudson; Benita Bolt--Brenda Barefoot; Lutie Spinks--Hilda McLamb; Twink Starr--James Allen Harris; Dr. Joy--J.D. Adams; Dr. Gordon--Thomas Hudson; Miss Prunella Figg--Hilda Wood; Mrs. Gertie Glossop--Sue Brock; Wilbur Glossop--Larry Williams; Martha Grubb--Geraldine McLamb; Henry Goober--Joseph Barefoot; Mr. Cadwalleder Clippy--Jimmy McLamb; Mr. Phineas Plunkett--Russell Peacock.

All these activities go in our memory book along with many other wonderful days spent at Meadow High.

DEDICATION

In recognition of his faithful work as teacher, librarian, and counselor, the Seniors of 1957 dedicate this edition to MR. LAWRENCE WILLIAMS, whose shy smile and quiet helpfulness make him the friend of student and teacher. His sympathetic understanding, his helpful advice, and his tireless energy have guided the publication of the "TUSCARORA" for three years. As a token of our appreciation, we dedicate our annual to our sponsor, MR. WILLIAMS.
